

The safety measurement from now.

The Sizuoka prefecture tea research center investigate the cesium content the tea 2012 in early (the end of March to beginning of April and inform you.

The Dr.Samejima of the Kakegawa hospital says that it is not good not to drink green teas because Japanese green teas have lots of healthy content such as Catechin and it is good for prevention to metabolic or for prevention to Dementia

Sizuoka prefecture are continuously doing the safety measurement and monitoring inspection and based on scientific data and technical measurement and inform accurate data in order to safe teas and customer drink easily.